Social Media – Class Dojo and Facebook

Partnership between home and school is a priority at Ryecroft and we are always looking for ways to improve our communication. To support this, we use the 'Class Dojo' website/App and have a school Facebook Page.

Class Dojo

Class Dojo is a private school communication platform that teachers, students, and families use to share learning through photos, videos, and messages. Only those invited to join are able to access our school site. The class pages are updated weekly by the teacher, which allows you to find out more about your child's week, and the school feed contains information, letters and updates about whole school events. Teachers may use this to pass on information or send a direct message to families. In the same way, parents are able to send a direct message to staff.

Only you will be able to see your child's own individual 'Class Dojo' page. This page will give you the opportunity to send in work from home in a situation that required remote learning and ask questions. Teachers will be able to post information and helpful links to support you and your child.

To safeguard our children and staff, these are our 'Class Dojo' rules

- Staff will have access to comments and messages between the hours of 9am and 4.00pm on a working day. Urgent concerns should be sent directly to the admin email.
- Please ensure all communication is polite.
- Any safeguarding concerns will be dealt with in line with the school safeguarding policy.

Directions on how to access the site:

1. Download the Class Dojo app or use the website <https://www.classdojo.com/en-gb/?redirect=true>
2. Follow the link in your email invitation sent from school.
3. Sign up to a parent account with your details and create a password

Facebook Page

School also has a Facebook page which is used to promote the school and provide information to a wider range of people. This is not a way to message school so please use Class Dojo or the school admin email address to ensure that this is seen by the right person.

This is a public forum which can be accessed by members of the community. With this in mind, it is important to ensure that we keep it for educational and information purposes. The content of our Facebook page will be solely professional, relating to the life of the school and we will not identify by name any children featured in photographs, or allow personally identifying information to be published. Any inappropriate comments or abuse on the Facebook page will immediately be removed and managed by myself.

Permission to use photographs for these sites is sought on entry to school.

By signing up to Class Dojo and accessing the school Facebook page, you are accepting our social media policy which is available on the school website.

If you have any problems or need any further guidance, please let school know.

Yours Faithfully,
